Eliza Schuyler Hamilton Historic Albany Tour

Pricing starts at $124 per person

While the hit Broadway musical Hamilton may focus on Alexander Hamilton, it also tells the story of his wife, Eliza Schuyler Hamilton. Eliza Schuyler Hamilton was born in Albany, outlived Hamilton by almost fifty years, and grew up to be an inspirational philanthropist. Your group will begin their tour with a relaxing 2-hour sightseeing cruise on the Hudson River narrated by a Hudson River Historian. Next, your group will enjoy lunch and a beer at C.H. Evans Brewing (established in 1786) located in the historic Albany Pump Station (established in 1874). After lunch, discover the history of Eliza Schuyler Hamilton by visiting historic landmarks on a 2-hour bus/walking tour.

Trip Includes:

- Roundtrip transportation on a DATTCO Premium Motorcoach
- 2-hour private Dutch Apple Cruise on the Hudson River with a Hudson River Historian
- Lunch at G.H. Evans Brewery, including 1 beer per person
- 2-hour walking and bus tour of historic Albany landmarks with a focus on Eliza Schuyler Hamilton
